

I hope and respectfully request that the FCC will turn down this blatant attempt by NAB to stifle legitimate competition at the expense of the safety and convenience of XM radio subscribers.